Proctoring Information

Online students in the Fairbanks area are required to take proctored exams or quizzes at the UAF eCampus Exam Center. The Exam Center is open Monday-Friday from 8am-5pm and until 7pm on Wednesday and Thursday evenings during fall and spring semesters. No appointments are necessary. Students outside of Fairbanks can arrange for off-site or virtual proctoring at least two weeks in advance. For more information, please visit <https://ecampus.uaf.edu/current-students/arrange-a-proctored-exam/>.

Course Policies

Expectations on Progress In Coursework.

Students are expected to complete all online homework in timely manner. Students are expected to take all quizzes and exams during the scheduled times. If these are not completed on time, the students is expected to provide a legitimate excuse or explanation to the Professor in writing, preferably prior the anticipated missed deadline, so that appropriate rearrangements can be made to make up the missed assignment.

Plagiarism and Academic Integrity

Academic dishonesty applies to examinations, assignments, and laboratory reports. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Presenting as their own the ideas or works of others without proper citation of sources;
- Utilizing devices not authorized by the faculty member;
- Using sources (including but not limited to text, images, computer code, and audio/video files) not authorized by the faculty member;
- Providing assistance without the faculty member's permission to another student, or receiving assistance not authorized by the faculty member from anyone (with or without their knowledge);
- Submitting work done for academic credit in previous classes, without the knowledge and advance permission of the current faculty member;
- Acting as a substitute or utilizing a substitute;
- Deceiving faculty members or other representatives of the university to affect a grade or to gain admission to a program or course;
- fabricating or misrepresenting data;
- Possessing, buying, selling, obtaining, or using a copy of any material intended to be used as an instrument of assessment in advance of its administration;
- Altering grade records of their own or another student's work;
- Offering a monetary payment or other remuneration in exchange for a grade; or
- Violating the ethical guidelines or professional standards of a given program.

Emergency Notification Plan

Students will receive emergency notifications via phone or email. Please check your uonline account to confirm your emergency notification settings. for more information, please refer to the student handbook. in cases where you do not have access to your devices, as your instructor, I will take responsibility to relay any emergency notifications.

Amending this Syllabus

Amendments and changes to the syllabus, including evaluation and grading mechanisms, are possible. The instructor must initiate any changes. Changes to the grading and evaluation scheme can be made before the add/drop date without a vote, but after that date must be voted on by the entire class and approved only with unanimous vote of all students present in class on the day the issue is decided. The lecture schedule and reading assignments (Daily Schedule) will not require a vote and may be altered at the instructor's discretion. This Daily Schedule can be found on Blackboard. Grading changes that unilaterally and equitably improve all students' grades will not require a vote. Once approved, amendments will be distributed in writing to all students via Blackboard.
